Enrolment

Enrolment is conducted through our online portal, My Family Lounge. Once your account is set up and the $100 bond payment and $20 membership fee have been paid, we will send your temporary login details and further instructions on how to enrol.

Families can enrol for casual access and/or permanent sessions.

Further information and significant policies such as the Priority of Access Policy can be found on our website, www.boosh.com.au. You can contact the Centre Coordinator at The BOOSH Centre for access to relevant information using the contact details below.

In the event the centre reaches capacity and cannot offer permanent positions, families will be contacted and advised of their place on the waitlist. Families can still access casual positions, where available.

Enrolment Process

Please note there are several steps that must be completed BEFORE you will be able to book sessions of care for your child. You will be contacted, usually via email, with instructions on completing the online enrolment form, which must be submitted, signed and returned to us with any required documentation before you have access to care.
